Pastor Meese Settles In

The welcome was muted in mid-July when Pastor Pam arrived to temporary quarters with tenants overstaying their stay at the Parsonage. The squatters have moved, the space spiffed up, and moving is scheduled for this weekend.

Pastor's first service on July 16 brought the additional blessing of return to services at 10:30. Communion was served.

The three-point charge is set up for the pastor to preach from Ocean Shores the first and third Sunday and at Satsop and Elma on the second and fourth with lay preaching from a sister church on fifth Sundays.

Our services when Pastor is in East County have been beset with sound problems on the remote broadcast. The source of the trouble has been identified, and adjustments are in train.

Move in Help Needed Saturday

Pastor Pam's Moving Day this Saturday 10:00 a.m.! The trustees will have truck and trailer at her house to load up the first load taking down to the parsonage stopping at the storage to see how much is there to move. Please text or email Dave Wilson if you are able to help.

Lunch Under the Bridge

The Ocean Shores Church joins with seven other UM churches in Grays Harbor to provide lunches once a month to the homeless at the Hwy 101 bridge over the Chehalis.

Pastor Pam organized the effort in August when we joined the Elma and Central Park churches. OSUMC next up second Sunday in November.
